Vintage Advantage

What you need to know TODAY: by DJ Watson, Newsletter Editor

There is so much to do today—can we fit it all in?

You may want to visit the Big Bear Pumpkin Patch, 20825 Eckles Rd Sedalia, MO 65301 while you are here.

A Dose of Humor: God gave us shin bones so we could find trailer hitches in the dark.

Mornings are amazing in Sedalia—check out coffees, line dancing, bike rides, devotions and more in the Whova App.

Did someone say Donuts? 9:00 Mathewson Center

Meet Wally Byam's cousin—10:30 at the Mohler Assembly where VAC Historian Joe Peplinski will chat with Pee Wee Schwamborn.

History of International Rallies—14:30 at Mohler Assembly—VAC Librarian David Gulley presents

Jam Session 19:00 MO-Ag Theatre, all musicians and singers welcome

Airstreams Aglow—19:30—Get out your outside décor, light up your Airstreams, and decorate golf carts and/or bicycles. There will be a golf cart/bicycle parade, meet at the Swine Barn. If that is not your thing then stroll around and see the fun. You just might find a Sidewalk Café (Wally's term for happy hours or campfires) along the way.

VAC Campfire tonight!!!! Look for us in the VAC area sometime after 17:00. We always enjoy meeting new folks.

James' Corner by James Schaal, President

Good Morning I hope you had as good of a time last night as I had! Batman and Robin were both showstopping!

Today we've got some exciting things going on throughout the Fairgrounds. If you haven't attended one of our vintage fire gatherings yet, be sure to come and bring a chair. We love all the great conversations that are going on!

Did you know?

The first Airstream sold for well under $2,000. While this seems like a bargain at today's prices, it was a gamble for Wally, who had already taught over 15,000 people to build their own for under $100 each with his magazine article.
